State of North Carolina
Pitt County } SS.

On this 9th day of May 1833 personally appeared in open Court before the Justices of the Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions for the State and County aforesaid now sitting Thomas Bently of the State and County aforesaid aged seventy four years who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832

That he entered the Service of the United States under the following officers and served as herein stated

That he served in Capt Hall's company under the command of General Greene, he believes in the third Regiment, (he does not remember the day or year) that he was at this time in an engagement against the Tories on the grassey Islands of Pedee River

That he was drafted in this County and went from this to Halifax and from thence to the head Quarters at a place called the Pon Ponds near the stone Oak in South Carolina and remained there and about in that part of the country twelve months which was the term of his service at that time and was then discharged which discharge he had kept until four or five years past when his house was burnt up and his discharge in it

He was born in the State of Virginia what place he left while an infant and have resided in the County of Pitt and State of North Carolina that he has resided ever since That he has no documentary evidence, and that he knows of no person whose testimony he can procure who can testify to his service He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State.

Sworn to and Subscribed the day and year aforesaid

And the said Court do hereby declare their opinion, after the investigation of the matter, and after putting the interrogatories prescribed by the War Department, that the above named applicant was a Revolutionary Soldier and Served as he States. And the Court further Certify that it appears to them that Samuel Lockhart, Simon Kuhn & John Joiner who have Signed the preceding Certificate are residents of the Countys of Pitt and Greene and State aforesaid that they are Credetable persons and that their Statement is entitled to Credit

I in Session

Gould Hoyt Chairman

Thomas Bentley 25572

I Archibald Parkus Clerk of the Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions for the County of Pitt and State of North Carolina do hereby Certify that the foregoing contains the original proceedings of the said Court in the matter of application of Thomas Bently for a pension

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal of office this 9th day May 1833

Madam.

In answer to your letter of the 16th of November last, I have to inform you, that your claims for bounty land and pension have not been allowed, for the reason that it has not been proved that he performed the service described in his declaration. Payments to a man of the name of John Bently, by the State of N. Carolina, have been certified, but the sums paid do not correspond with the service described by your late husband. As there is no other proof of his service your claim remains suspended.

To the Honorable the Secretary of the War Department of the United States of America

The petition of Jeremiah Bentley, respectfully sheweth, that he is a citizen of the United States of America, & resident in the county of Sullivan in the State of Tennessee = That on the 28th day of August 1777, he enlisted in the county of Amelia, & State of Virginia, as a [illegible] private Soldier in the War of the Revolution between the then thirteen United colonies & Great Britain, on the continental establishment under a certain Robert Foster, who was either a Lieutenant, or ensign (but your petitioner is not confident which) in a company commanded by Capt James Foster, in the 15 Virginia Regiment, & in General
Woodfords Brigade of continental troops:
That on the 14th of January 1778,* he joined General Washingtons army at Valley Forge, at which time, said Capt James Foster be =ing dead, your petitioner served, & under a Capt James Mason (to the best of his recollection) in the Regiment and Brigade above mentioned = That in the Spring of 1779
he was placed under the command of Gen
=pany of light Infantry commanded by Capt Samuel Boothe; That he was at the battle at Stoney Point, and was at the siege of Charlestown by the British in 1780; at which time he was taken prisoner by the enemy; and kept on board a prison Ship for the term of nine months; when he was taken sick, and sent to the Hospital in Charleston, from which he gave them escape on the 9th day of May, at night, in the year 1781; and returned to his home in the Amelia County in the State of Virginia =
That his term of service for which he

(*since he 1778 & 1779.)

had enlisted, had escaped some time before he made his escape from the enemy as aforesaid in consequence of which he did not again join the army; but some short time afterwards he received in the city of Richmond, in the state of Virginia, from a certain Col William Davis, by the direction of his said former Captain Jeremiah Booker, an honorable discharge; which he kept for near twenty years; when thinking it was of no Value, he destroyed it, so that he cannot now produce it — Your petitioner would further beg leave to state, that after having served under Genl Wayne, as before stated, he was, at Chester in New Jersey, placed under the command of Capt William Mosely, in the first Virginia Regiment, Woodford's Brigade of Continental troops, in which said company, Regiment & Brigade he served until he was made prisoner as above stated — The most of the persons who knew him in service, are either dead, or live at so remote a distance from your petitioner that he cannot with any convenience procure their testimony; that he is now according to the information of his parents, in the fifty ninth year of his age — That he is very infirm; having his left shoulder dislocated, for thirty odd years ago; so that his arm is nearly useless to him — He is also much afflicted with the piles; so that from his age and infirmity, he is unable to gain a livelihood by his own exertions — That he is very poor, and has a wife who is about two years younger than himself, to maintain — That he stands much in need of assistance for a support from his country — He has received no pension from his country & his pay was of very little service, being of depreciated Money — He hereby relinquishes his claim to every pension by the laws of the United States allowed him, previous to the passage of an act, entitled "an act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval service of the united states in the Revolutionary War" passed by the Congress of the United States 7th March 1818, and signed by the President on the 21st of the same month — He therefore prays to be placed upon the pension list agreably to the provision of said act — 4th June 1818.

Joris or George Hansen, bp. July 18, 1649; m. Aug. 11, 1678, Sara da. of Jan Strycker of Fl^{b}; d. after 1736. Was a carpenter by trade, took the oath of allegiance in Br^{n} in 1687, was a commissioner of Br^{n} from 1690 to 1699. In 1698 bought a farm of nearly 40 A. (formerly of Gerret Wolfersen Van Couwenhoven) in Br^{n} E. of Smith St. and N. of the Mill Creek. In 1703, '4, and '5, was supervisor of Br^{n}. Apl. 10, 1697, a resolution was passed at a town meeting in Br^{n} to divide the common lands, the holders of a house and lot to have only a half share. For laying out and dividing they appointed Capt. Henry Filkin, Jacob Van Deventer, Daniel Rapalie, Joris Hansen (Bergen), John Dorland, and Cor^{s} Van Duyn, as per p. 133 of Lib. 2 of Con. Issue:—Lammetje, bp. Dec. 26, 1679, m. Joris Remsen of Haverstraw; Sara, bp. Mar. 13, 1681; Aaltje, bp. Oct. 15, 1682, m. Aug. 17, 1707, Rem Remsen, d. about 1724; Hans, bp. May 24, 1696; Joris; and Catharine, m. Sept. 21, 1726, Peter Ewetse of Br^{n} and N. Y. Signed his name "Jores Hansen."

Michael Hansen, bp. Nov. 4, 1646; m. Femmetje da. of Teunis Nyssen (Denyse); d. after Jan. 22, 1731. With his brother Jan and others applied Mar. 18, 1662, for land at Bedford, and obtained a patent for 20 morgens in that locality May 15, 1664, on which he probably at one period resided. Mar. 2, 1674, he bought, of Albert Cornelysen Wantenaer, Huych Aerts Van Rossem's patent of 29 morgens in the vicinity of Powers St. in the present city of Br^{n}, and which in a confirmatory patent to Cornelysen was made to cover 90 morgens, to which plantation he removed. His name appears as one of the patentees of Br^{n} on Gov. Dongan's patent of May 13, 1686. Took the oath of allegiance in Br^{n} in 1687 as a native; commissioned Oct. 22, 1688, as capt. of militia; and appointed justice of the peace by Gov. Bellamont Oct. 11, 1698. In 1701 he bought 466 A. of land on the Raritan, N. J. Issue:—Sara, bp. June 2, 1678, m. Feb. 17, 1722, Jan Strycker of Fl^{h}; Teunis, bp. May 16, 1680, d. young; Hans, bp. May 11, 1689; Femmetje, m. Jan. 6, 1695, Jan Cornelisse Vanderveer; and Mary. Signed his name "Migguel Hansen."

Berrien or Berryen, Cornelis Janse, m. 1st Jannetje da. of Jan Strycker of Fl^{h}; m. 2^{d} Hendrickje Verplaneken. Settled in Fl^{h}, and Feb. 6, 1670-71, was allotted in pursuance of the patent of said town a farm of 23 morgens lying between the farm of Cornelis Barendse Van der Wyck and that of Jan Janse Van Ditmarsen, and in addition salt meadows and plain land, as per p. 16 of Lib. A of Fl^{h} rec. His name appears on Fl^{h} ass. roll of 1675, on Gov. Andross' patent of each other and with owners of the three tracts described above. It will be noted that the list largely divides into two groups, one relating to Reeden Island and one to Mountain Neck.

Migguel Hansen was also known as Michael Hansen Bergen. His mother was Sara Rapalje, a sister of 1) Jeronimus Rapalje whose daughter Sara married Hans Berge or Berges, an early participant in the Reeden Island purchase, and 2) Jannetje Rapalje who married Rem Jansen Vanderbeeck and had children Daniel Remsen (one of the signers), Hilletje or Hillegond who married Aris Jan Vanderbilt (one of the signers), Catalina who married Elbert Adrianse (one of the signers and a next-door neighbor to Daniel Remsen) (FhTR A483) and Jan whose son Rem Vanderbeeck became one of the owners of the Mountain Neck tract. Rem's wife Dorothea Cortelyou was a sister of Neeltje Cortelyou who was the second wife of Isaac Hansen als Simonsen (or Simonsen als Hansen), another of the owners of the Mountain Neck Tract and perhaps a son of Simon Hansen, one of the signers. Isaac's first wife was Antje Vanderbilt, probably a daughter of Aris Jansz Vanderbilt. Simon Hansen was a brother of Garret Hansen (one of the signers) and probably a brother of, or in any event closely related to, John Hansen, a leading owner of the Reeden Island tract. Rem Vanderbeeck's mother was Martha Damen who after the death of Rem's father married James Simpson, and her sister Aeltje Damen married Samuel Phillips, both James and Samuel being among the owners of the Mountain Neck Tract. Johannes Van Eckelen and Martin Clocke are the only signers who do not fit into the pattern by way of obvious family relationship. Maria, daughter of Peter Lodt (a signer), married Johannes Schenck son of Johannes Schenck who was a Reeden Island owner and whose daughter Margriete married John Stryker son of Peter Stryker (an adjoining owner) and Peter's wife Annetje Barends, who in turn was a daughter of Barent Joosten, a Reeden Island owner. John Stryker's second wife was Sara Bergen, daughter of Michael Hansen Bergen.

This story of migration is certainly incomplete. Further research will no doubt be able to fill in some of the unexplained parts of the real estate ventures and develop additional data concerning the venturers and their relationships, and surely there are many more emigrants from Brooklyn and New York to this area to fill out the pattern indicated here.

New York interest has been a little ingrown and self-centered—can we say narcissistic? It needs to recognize more fully New York's position as the early origin for much outside settlement and to develop such stories and relationships more fully. They should be of interest not only to the emigrants but also to New Yorkers to see how their friends and relatives peopled the great open spaces of those early days beyond the New York area.

Next will follow the genealogy of the family of John Hanson (R1) for a few generations.

AN EMIGRATION FROM KINGS COUNTY

By Baldwin Maull

R5) Philip Hanson, son of Hans Hanson (R3), received under his father's will the plantation whereon Hans then dwelt, with half the marshes—not otherwise described. Philip sold this property to Cornelius Carty 30 October 1756 by deed not found, according to recital in another deed dated 1764 (DR K-1:173. See also Scharf 985f). Thus the property cannot be identified from Philip's records, and it becomes necessary to examine Carty's other real estate transactions:

1. He married Mary daughter of Abraham Gooding (supra) and as a result of this relationship he and wife Mary joined her sister Gertrude and husband Jared Rothwell, and Jacob Van Bebber as executor under Abraham's will, in selling to James Schee for £730.16 by deed dated May 1760 the 337 acres of land in the Mountain Neck tract which Abraham had purchased from Rem Van Der Beek (supra), (DR T-1:208), and he and wife Mary released to her sister Gertrude Rothwell in a division of their father's estate a tract of land at the head of Silver Run of 141 acres 61 perches and 5 lots in St. George's Hundred totalling something over 35 acres and "one fourth part of the Wolf Island consisting of Timber Land yet undivided" by instrument dated Aug. 1762 (DR U-1:531).
2. He exchanged 6-acre lots of marsh and fast land on the south side of Augustine Creek with his neighbor Paul Barns of St. George's Hundred (supra) in 1760 and 1762 (DR T-1:294, 524). He purchased from Jacob Gooding's heirs a 12 acre lot of marsh on the south side of Augustine Creek adjoining his own land in 1761 (DR T-1:291). He exchanged certain lots with his neighbor John Hanson (probably his uncle R6) in 1764 (DR X-1:173).
3. He mortgaged to Slator Clay of New Castle, Innkeeper, for a £150 debt by instrument dated 27 Nov. 1759 two tracts of land near Reedy Island in St. George's Hundred 105 acres of high land with some marsh belonging thereto on a branch of Silver Run and by land formerly of Catherine Van Eckelyn (DR S-1:652). This might have been the same land sold to Higgins in 1766. The 64-acre tract probably represented a Gooding inheritance.
   He and wife Mary sold to the heirs of James Piper for £60 by deed dated 23 May 1765 two 7-acre lots of marsh and a 1-acre lot of upland probably in satisfaction or partial satisfaction of a mortgage granted by Piper to Carty to secure Carty's debt of £128 (DR X-1:101).
4. He and wife Mary sold for £540 by deed dated 18 Nov. 1766 to Laurence Higgins 150 acres of which 22 acres represented an outside purchase and the balance apparently was a part of the Reeden Island tract, plus a 1-acre lot of fast land on Long Island, and a part or share of the undivided marshes at Long Island in proportion to 105 acres of fast land. This would seem to represent something less than a 1/8 interest in the large tract.
5. He and wife Mary mortgaged to John Jones (a nearby owner) for a £750 debt by instrument dated 3 Aug. 1770 a tract of land of 282 acres on the north side of Silver Run bounded by lands of John Hanson, Samuel Anderson and Isaac Van Dike, 7 lots of marsh and woodland totalling 44 acres and a 1/8 "part of all that tract or parcel of marsh commonly called Long Island Marsh containing in the whole about one thousand and five hundred acres" (DR Z-1:73). This description suggests that Carty was mortgaging a 1/8 part of the original large purchase. It is clearly stated in the deed recital that this land came to Philip Hanson from his father Hans, a part of the Reeden Island Tract, and as Philip's brother John might be assumed to have received a relatively equal amount, it seems clear that Hans had nearly 2/8. As he was recited to have had only 1/8 at the time of division, he must have inherited or purchased what devolved upon his sons Philip and John. There is no record of any such purchse, so inheritance is indicated.

Philip Hanson married Mary, daughter of Charles Robinson of Appoquinimink Hundred, cordwainer, who died leaving a will dated 9 January 1746 "duly proved" but not found, leaving one-half his property to his son Charles Robinson and one-half to his daughter Mary wife of Philip Hanson, the latter to have the half on which the testator then lived. The property consisted of 541 acres of upland, cripple and marsh on the south side of Appoquinimink Hundred. Charles and Mary divided the property by deed dated 7 May 1762. Witnesses were Wm. Whittet, William Price and Frank Bailey. Philip and Mary's moiety, consisting of 264 acres, was bounded in part by land late of George Dakeyne, by Appoquinimink Creek, by land of Charles Robinson and Joseph Hill and by the King's Road from Blackbird's Bridge to Appoquinimink Bridge (DR U-1:564, Y-1:99, P-2:11; Scharf 1016; Del History IV 73n). There was some dispute concerning the settlement of this estate as on 21 January 1755 John Vance, surviving executor under the will of Charles Robinson, was cited to appear to answer the complaint of Philip Hanson and wife Mary, Vance to pay the costs. Philip and wife were given liberty to examine evidence in advance (OCR C-1:222).

With the inheritance of his father-in-law's plantation and the sale of his Philip and wife Mary died intestate, Mary predeceasing her husband (OCR D-1:372; DR Y-1:99). Philip had died by 1 September 1763 as interest from that date was allowed in the accounting for his estate filed 15 January 1771 by his son William showing a remaining balance of £102.12 to be disposed of according to law (OCR D-1:283).

Philip and Mary had two sons and two daughters (OCR D-1:372; DR P-2:11):

i. William. As eldest son, of four children, he was entitled to 2/5 of the intestate estates of his father and mother (DR Y-1:335; P-2:335; Scharf 1016). He purchased from his sister Sophia her 1/5 share (vide infra).

By deed dated 14 Nov. 1767, as William Hanson Junior of Appoquinimink Hundred, he sold to Duncan Beard for £8 a 1-acre lot in that Hundred out of his inheritance from his mother, bounded by the King's Road and land of Thomas McKean, Esq. and said William Hanson. The deed was signed manually. Witnesses were William Moodey and Joseph Anderson (DR Y-1:335).

By deed dated 13 Nov. 1771, also as William Hanson Junior of Appoquinimink Hundred, he sold to William Bradford of the same place for £20 "a small lot" of 2 acres of march on the northwest side of the total property, at the foot of Cantwell's Bridge. Witnesses were Duncan Beard and Edward Justice (DR P-2:11).

In each case there was recital of William's accession to three-fifths of the inherited property.

On 19 Aug. 1772 he asked the court for a division of the land whereof his father Philip had died seized in right of his wife Mary Robinson—183 acres of upland and arable land and 80 acres of marsh, on the south side of Appoquinimink Creek. All four children were then "in full life." It was reported that the land would not conveniently admit of a division, and it was valued at £792. William Junior was allowed to buy the land and to pay on usual terms of 1/3 in 6 months, 1/3 in 12 months and 1/3 in 18 months. Charles Robinson gave bond with William for £1584 (OCR D-1: 372, 375f, 395f, 412f). Disposition of this land has not been found.

R10) ii. Charles

iii. Sophia married William Moody. She and her husband of Appoquinimink Hundred, Taylor, sold to her elder brother William for £100 by deed dated 9 Feb. 1767 her 1/5 of the property left by her mother. Witnesses were Sarah Garretson and Charles Robinson. Both Moodys signed manually (DR Y-1:99).

iv. Anna. She chose as her guardian her uncle John Hanson about 1769 (date mutilated OCR D-1:229). Thus, though a minor at that time, she was 14 or older.

R7) William Hanson, as eldest son of John Hanson (R4) purchased from his brothers John, Nicholas, and Jacobus by deed dated 7 March 1752 for £100 each or a total of £300 their interest in their father's property—"sundry tracts or parcels of land and Marsh" without any further particular description. All signed manually. Witnesses were John Culbertson, William Fowler and John Hanson (DR T-1:62). William also purchased from his sister Mary and her husband Daniel Hukill (Huckill) of St. George's Hundred, Mill-Wright, by deed dated 18 December 1756 for £100 her interest in her father's land said to be a tract of about 300 acres in St. George's Hundred, again without further particular description. Daniel signed manually but Mary by mark. Witnesses were Wm. Golden and Wm. Anderson (DR T-1:27). William filed an account as administrator of the estate of Daniel Hickens 20 April 1761 (Unrecorded unbound unindexed volume of Orphans Court Records in Archives Office at Dover). He was a member of Drawyers Church in 1767. William was listed on the assessment rolls of St. George's Hundred from 1777 through 1779, and his estate 1780-1. William died intestate in 1778 (DR Y-2:29).

William had children:

R11) i. John

ii. Mary married David Vandyke. They released to John Hanson (her brother) by deed dated 19 Oct. 1792 his 2/3, in consideration of his release to them of Mary's 1/3 interest in a tract of land left them by their father of 287 acres and 109 perches, bounded by lands of Cantwell Jones (late of Cornelius Carty), Rev. Thomas Read, Philip Janvier, Patrick and Thomas McDonough, late of John Jones, the King's road and the road leading from the Trap to St. Augusteen landing—obviously a part of the Reeden Island tract. John's share was 181 acres 68 perches (DR M-2:234). Both signed manually. Witnesses were Thos. McDonough and Mary Aull. David died between 23 Sept. and 19 Oct. 1798 (WR 0-1:379). Mary died without issue before 24 Mar. 1801 (DR W-2:116).

On 16 April 1765 Mary Hanson, minor orphan child of William Hanson, chose as her guardian (so she was then 14 or older) William Hanson (OCR D-1:134). How explain the fact that John and Mary were described as minor orphan children of William Hanson on 16 April 1765, and William Hanson was named guardian for both, when (a) it is quite clear from DR Y-2:29 that William did not die until 1778, and (b) there is no other William on the scene to be appointed such guardian, unless it be William son of their father's brother John (R3)? Possibly William's wife died leaving property for the children and her widower husband was being appointed guardian.

R8) John Hanson, son of John Hanson (R4), joined his brothers Nicholas and Jacobus in selling to their brother William (R7) for £100 each the lands coming to them upon the death of their father intestate, by deed dated 7 March 1752 but not recorded until 17 July 1760 (DR T-1:62). John Hanson weaver of St. George's Hundred purchased from John Dars by deed dated 23 August 1748 for £48 a one-acre tract on the King's road leading from St. George's to Drawers Bridge purchased by John Dars from William Hanson (presumably R2) by lost deed; and John Hanson (weaver) sold this lot to James McDonough for £68.7.6 by deed dated 21 May 1765 (DR Q-1:118; X-1:345). John (R8) died before 18 August 1772 and in spite of the reported sale to his older brother was possessed of about 400 acres of land near the Trap, meadow and marsh on "Rheedin Island Neck near the Trap" and "an undivided Right in an Island of Marsh known by the name of Long Island" valued at £1725 on 19 January 1773 (OCR D-1:373). It would seem likely that John inherited this land from his mother.

He had children:

i. William. As eldest son, he asked the court that his father's land be given to him on his giving security for payment of the valuation to the "heirs and representatives" of the deceased. The land had been valued at £1725. Sale to him was ordered 19 Jan. 1773, payment to be made 1/3 in 6 months, 1/3 in 12 months and 1/3 in 18 months. He gave bond with Benjamin Merritt for £3450 (OCR D-1:393, 394). William Hanson son of John Hanson weaver sold to Peter Hanson, of St. George's Hundred for $113 by deed dated 4 Oct. 1802 a 2-acre lot on the east side of the Reeden Island road and bounded by lands late of Alkey Pennington and John Hanson, left to William by his father's will dated 12 May 1794 not found (DR Y-2:244).

ii. Peter married Hannah (—). He was dead by 22 Mar. 1772 when his widow Hannah reported as administratrix of his estate showing a balance of £34.1.11 (OCR D-1:326, 372). She was appointed guardian of his minor children Mary and Margaret Hanson 21 Aug. 1772 and with Nicholas Vandyke was bound on 20 August 1773 for £300 (OCR D-1:451, 457). She petitioned for division of the estate of Peter's father John Hanson in which (as one of eight children) Peter would be entitled to a 1/9 share. But it was found that father John had left nine children (not eight as represented) of whom two died under age without issue so that Peter was entitled to 1/10 of the whole and 1/7 of the shares of the two deceased children (OCR D-1:373, 385f, 393f).

iii. Benjamin

iv. Joseph. A Joseph Hanson was taxable in Fayette County, Pa., in 1785 and 1786. (Pa. Arch. 3rd Ser. 22:566).

v. William

vi. Elizabeth married a Stalcop before 16 Jan. 1770 (OCR D-2:45).

vii. Mary Jane

viii. Edward

ix. Cyrus

R9) Jacobus Hanson, son of John Hanson (R4), married (1) Hannah and (2) Priscilla, surnames unknown. The name Jacobus seldom appears —when it does, it will be so indicated—and apparently was Anglicized to James. In spite of the reported sale to his older brother, he owned about 190 acres in the Reeden Island area upon his death. It would seem likely that Jacobus inherited this from his mother.

James bought and later resold two adjacent properties and mortgaged another property in St. George's Hundred:

James Hanson of St. George's Hundred Shoemaker purchased from Paul Barns Yeoman and wife Catherine by deed 15 Feb. 1758 for £150: (1) 66 acres part of a tract called Chestnut Neck bordering on land of the children of Richard Humphries deceased and on the south side of a drain leading out of Doctor's Swamp, and (2) 37 acres bounded by Peter Parker's land, a Baxter tract and Chetwood Hall's land (DR S-1:411).

James Hanson Farmer and wife Hannah of St. George's Hundred sold the same two tracts to William Carpenter by deed dated 24 Mar. 1776 for £537. Witnesses were John Jones and James Dunohan. He signed manually, she by mark (DR C-2:87).

James Hanson of St. George's Hundred Cordwainer and wife Hannah mortgaged to Ann Clay of the Town of New Castle, widow, for a debt of £257 due 1 May 1769 by indenture dated 13 Feb. 1769 a tract of 176 acres 15 perches bounded by lands of Garret Richardson, Robert Piper, William Hanson, the late Abraham Gooding and John Hanson, and running along a branch of Augustine Cripple. Witesses were James McDonough and Sam'l Smith (CR Y-1:619).

He was listed on the assessment rolls of St. George's Hundred from 1777 through 1783 and his estate from 1784 through 1796 and perhaps later, in 1788 "including the widow's thirds" in New Castle Hundred 1786-7 and again in 1791-2 and 1794, and in White Clay Creek Hundred in 1796. He would not have inherited from his father any land in New Castle Hundred or in White Clay Creek Hundred.

Jacobus or James probably died about 1783, intestate.

On 6 April 1790: (1) his widow Priscilla with her second husband, Robert McGuffin, petitioned for allotment to her of one-third of James' estate, and she was given 28 acres with certain rights to use the barn, etc.—a very small allotment—and (2) John Hanson, Farmer and Robert McGuffin as administrators of James' estate produced an account showing a balance of £284.25.7½ or £568.16.1½ (OCR G-1:125, 130, 151. Adm.). James' property was described as being 190 acres bounded by lands of John Hanson, Robert Haughey, William McKenne, Cantwell Jones and James Piper deceased. In 1787 a petition on behalf of his daughter Hannah describes the property as "a Log dwelling house & Kitchen, a Log Barn and smoak house, all in tolerable good repair, a young bearing Apple Orchard of about Ninety trees, and a small thriving Peach Orchard", about 100 acres of clear and 90 acres of woodland, the place then in four fields, with an annual value of £47.10 for the past and 120 bushels of clear Merchantable Wheat for the future (OCR F-1:496, 528). In 1806 his property was described in a petition on behalf of his daughter Elizabeth as being 194 acres 58 perches of land with a seven-acre lot of cripple on Augustine Creek, in the possession of Richard Price, valued at £1206 (OCR I-1:539).

He had children:

i. James. Jacob Hanson 5'4½" fresh complexion 19 years old born in Dragon Neck enlisted in the Battalion of the Flying Camp for the Delaware State 14 Aug. 1776. He was then in service from time to time as a foot soldier and in a wagon brigade supplying 2 wagons and then 1 wagon through 1779 (Del. Archives I:68, II:701, 705, 706, 707, 708, 754). James Hanson attested the nuncupative will of Thomas Scurry of St. George's Hundred 29 March 1788 (WR M-1:323). He married Susannah (—), and with her joined in deed noted below dated 27 Sept. 1793. James Hanson was listed on the assessment rolls of St. George's Hundred from 1784 through 1793, and then in 1798 with no acreage but with two slaves. He was listed in the 1800 Census with males two under 10, 1 10/16, 1 26/45 and females 1 under 10, 1 16/26 and 1 26/45. On 12 Apr. 1816 a James Hanson was appointed guardian of Jane Hook, minor orphan child of Henry Hook, with Patrick McConaughy as surety, and on the same day Abraham Hanson, minor orphan child of James Hanson, chose as guardian John Hanson, with David Thomas as surety (OCR K-1:217). This suggests that James son of James had died by that date, leaving a son James who was then of age, and a minor son Abraham.

ii. Martha married her first cousin John Hanson (R11).

iii. William was living at the time of his father's death (probably 1783) but deceased by 27 Sept. 1793 (DR F-3:223). He was listed on the assessment rolls of St. George's Hundred from 1790 through 1793.

iv. Peter chose as his guardian John Hanson of St. George's Hundred 1 April 1783 (OCR F-1:260). He married Mary (—) who joined him in deed noted below dated 27 Sept. 1793. He left a will dated 18 Jan. probated 31 Jan. 1801 bequeathing his clothes to his brother Lawrence and all else to his children James and Thomas Hanson. Witnesses were William and Nicholas Hanson. Executors were friend John Hanson of St. George's Hundred farmer and John Moody of the same place. John Moody filed a final account on 29 Apr. 1823 showing a balance of $996.93. Peter was listed on the assessment rolls for St. George's Hundred in 1790-1 and for Appoquinimink Hundred 1793, 1795-6.

v. Hannah as minor orphan child of James Hance chose Joseph Aspril as guardian on 17 July 1787, with William Carpenter as surety (OCR F-1:496). On her guardian's application the lands were valued 19 Nov. 1787 (OCR F-1:528). She married George Crage/Craig who joined her in deed noted below dated 27 Sept. 1793.

vi. Lawrence as minor orphan child of James Hanson late of St. George's Hundred chose James Hanson as his guardian 4 June 1790, with John Hanson as surety (OCR G-1:124 Chancery Case 87A #8.1). He was still a minor when his brothers and sisters of age joined in the deed noted below dated 27 Sept. 1793. A Lawrence Hanson married a Rebecca Sawyer (Chancery Vol. 87A #81).

vii. Elizabeth. John Hanson Farmer was appointed her guardian 6 Apr. 1790 a minor orphan child of James Hanson of Appoquinimink Hundred (sic) with Robert McGuffin as surety. She was still a minor in 1801. She had died intestate without issue by 1804 (OCR I-1:329, 539, DR F-3:223, G-1:124).

viii. Samuel was a minor on 6 Apr. 1790 but was dead by 23 June 1797 when Priscilla McGuffin (his father's widow) as administratrix of his estate filed an account showing a balance of £83.13.2 due to the estate of her deceased husband Robert McGuffin. In administration proceedings she was allowed money from Samuel's share in his father's estate for Samuel's boarding, schooling and clothing supplied by McGuffin from 25 Mar. 1783 to 29 Jan. 1790, by account passed 24 Oct. 1796. Samuel was entitled to a 1/9 share in his father's undivided plantation in St. George's Hundred of 200 acres. As administrator Priscilla sold Samuel's 1/9 interest to Richard Price, approved by the court 19 Dec. 1797 (OCR H-1:266, 292).

James' children who were of age and their wives as listed above sold James' plantation of 194 acres 58 perches (but not his separate lot of cripple on the south side of St. Augustine Creek) to Richard Price by deed dated 27 September 1793, but not recorded until 17 May 1808, for a total consideration of £480 unevenly divided among the heirs. Witnesses were Thomas and Hannah McDonough. All signed manually except Susannah Hanson and George Craig. The land was cornered on land late of William Hanson now of David Vandyke and wife and bounded by lands of Robert Haughey, Lewis Vandegrift, Cantwell Jones late of Cornelius Carty, William Thomas late of William Hanson, and Augustine Cripple (DR F-3:223).

R10) CHARLES HANSON, son of Philip Hanson (R5), chose as his guardian John Hanson at about 1769 (date mutilated) so that while still a minor at that time he was at least 14 (OCR D-1:229). He married (1) Jemima (—) who was one of the heirs of Peter Alricks (Cf. George Hannah "Peter Alricks, of the Amsterdam Colony" REC. 24:125). On a division of Peter's estate in 1788 she received three small parcels of land. Charles and Jemima had children:

i. Joseph Hanson married Eliza (—). By deed dated 16 Feb. 1807 he sold to Kensey Johns for $100 his share in the land which came to him through his mother Jemima from the Peter Alricks estate. Witnesses were Charles Hanson and Richard Johns (DR E 3:340). Joseph Hanson of Appoquinimink Hundred died intestate. The account of Peter Hanson, his administrator, was passed 7 Jan. 1833 showing a balance for distribution of $2,207.18, which went $474.80 to Eliza Hanson and $316.54 each to his three children:

  i. Peter Thomas Hanson
  ii. Richard Flintham Hanson
  iii. Joseph Henry Hanson

  His widow Eliza was appointed their guardian, with Samuel Biddle of St. George's Hundred as surety, on 11 Jan. 1833, with bond on 16 November 1833 (OCR O-1:425, 426, F-1:52, 53).

ii. Sophia Hanson

iii. Samuel Hanson, On 21 August 1812 the court chose Isaac Tilman a guardian of Charles Hanson, minor orphan child of Samuel Hanson, with James Buckson as surety (OCR K-1:56).

John Moody (their uncle by marriage) was appointed guardian of all three as minor orphan children (under 14) of Charles Hanson of St. George's Hundred, with Joseph Alexander as surety (OCR G-1:327). All three were mentioned in the will of Samuel Steward dated 3 January probated 9 January as children of Jemimah Hanson deceased (WR N-1:233).

The three children petitioned the Chancery Court on 12 September 1792, as minor orphan children of Jemima Hanson deceased, late wife of Charles Hanson of St. George's Hundred, to prevent waste by one who had bought Charles' tenancy by curtesy at a Sheriff's sale. Jemima was entitled to a one-fifteenth interest as granddaughter of one of the heirs of Peter Alricks whose estate of 521 acres was involved. Disposition is not known (Chancery Records H #3). After Charles' death Joseph the eldest child was aged 27 upwards, Sophia had died intestate and unmarried without issue and Samuel had died intestate under age but having issue a son Charles. So the land vested in Joseph and Charles. On 16 February 1807 Joseph sold to Kensey Johns (DR E-3:340) who on 1 November 1810 asked that the land be divided. It was reported that the land could not be divided, and it was valued at $411.67 (OCR I-1:679, 698f, K-1:23).

Charles married (2) Mary Peckard. She was probably the daughter of Peter Peckard. On 21 April 1779 Jared Rothwell was appointed guardian of Sebrah, Henry and Mary Peckard, minor orphan children of Henry Peckard deceased (OCR F-1:71). On 17 July 1787 Henry and Mary Peckard chose Joseph Hudson as their guardian, with William Williams as surety and bond of £500 (OCR F-1:497). On Joseph Hudson's application as such guardian three men were ordered to go on the land of Henry Peckard, late of Appoquinimink Hundred, and estimate its annual value, etc. This order was continued 1 April 1788 (OCR F-1:521, 549). On 15 December 1801 the land was divided in a peculiar way: (1) 175 acres 11 perches plus 18 acres of woodland to Henry Pecker, and (2) 91 3/4 acres 25 perches of land plus 11 acres of woodland to John Clayton Price in right of his wife Ann late Ann Pecker, but all subject to a deduction of one-third in favor of Charles Hanson in right of his wife Mary late Mary Pecker (OCR I-1:144). Possibly Charles Hanson's financial condition explained this retention of Mary's interest, as he had been forced by debt to dispose of his curtesy interest in the estate of his former wife.

Charles died leaving a will as "of Appoquinimink Hundred" dated 10 September probated 2 October 1810, mentioning his wife Mary, sons Joseph and Philip and grandson Charles. Jn° Crawford was named executor. John C. Price, Ann Price and Benjamin Price were witnesses. His wife Mary "of Appoquinimink Hundred" died intestate. The accounts of her administrator John C. Price were passed 18 December 1811 and 5 March and 29 September 1812. On 22 February 1811 Edmund Wilson of Appoquinimink Hundred, administrator of the estate of Thomas Rothwell 3rd and also his sole heir, manumitted "a certain man of colour Peregrine Hanson, late the property of Charles Hanson now deceased, and formerly the property of sd Thomas Rothwell . . ." (DR I-3:506).

Charles and Mary had one child:

i. Philip Hanson. He chose as his guardian (and therefore was at least 14 years old) John C. Price on 21 August 1812. John Merritt was surety (OCR K-1:55).

Charles was listed as a resident of Appoquinimink Hundred in the 1800 Census with 2 males 10/16, 1 over 45, 2 females 10/16, 2 16/26, over 45, 1 other and 1 slave. He was listed on the assessment rolls of various Hundreds: Appoquinimink 1777-8; St. George's 1778, 1780-3; Red Lyon 1784-5; St. George's 1786; New Castle 1787; and Appoquinimink 1795-6.

On 3 June 1776 Charles applied as desirous of taking an active part in the "Flying Camp" during the Revolution. The result of his application is not known (Del. Archives I:65).

R11) John Hanson, son of William Hanson (R7). On 16 April 1765 John Hanson minor orphan child of William Hanson chose as his guardian (so he was then 14 or older) William Hanson, not identified, but probably his father (OCR D-1:134). He married his first cousin Martha Hanson daughter of Jacobus Hanson (R7) (OCR I-1:329). He had a number of real estate transactions of importance:

John Hanson and wife Martha and David Vandyke and wife Mary (John's sister) of St. George's Hundred sold to James Hanson (R4C) by deed dated 16 Nov. 1781 for £35 a 7 acre 27 perch lot of cripple on St. Augustine Creek bounded by lands of William Reed, William Clark and the estates of Isaac and John Gooding, and also 1½ acres of "a undivided Right of Marsh known by the Name of Long Island Marsh". All signed manually. Witnesses were Elizabeth Thompson and John Thompson (DR E-2:47). This is the first of 14 lots conveyed to William Hanson by deed dated 5 Oct. 1767 noted above, by which those lots were conveyed to William in settlement of the joint holding (DR Y-1:446 supra).

By deed dated 19 Oct. 1792 David Vandyke and wife Mary released to John Hanson (her broter) his 2/3, in consideration of his release to them of Mary's 1/3, interest in a tract of land left them by their father (vide supra).

John Hanson of St. George's Hundred Farmer and wife Martha mortgaged the land described in the next preceding paragraph to Alexander McBeath of White Clay Hundred Merchant by indenture dated 27 Oct. 1792 for a debt of £300. Witnesses were Stewart Thompson and Washington L. Finney (DR K-2:181). John Hanson of St. George's Hundred Farmer and wife Martha again mortgaged this land by indenture dated 20 July 1796 to Peter Hyatt of the same hundred for a debt of £262.10. Witnesses were Richd. Price and William Vandegrift (DR P-2:386).

Benjamin S. Caulk and wife Lydia sold to John Hanson Farmer by deed dated 18 Mar. 1795 for £200 a tract of 347 acres 134 perches on Blackbird Creek, and John Hanson and wife Martha sold it back to Benjamin S. Caulk by deed dated 20 Mar. 1795 for the same £200. The land had been held by Caulk in estate tail and, pursuant to the Delaware law to dock such estates, this transaction was undoubtedly to break the entailment and give the property to Caulk in fee simple (DR O-2:233, 235).

John Hanson and wife Martha sold to John Collins by deed dated 26 Nov. 1799 for £13.5 a 9 acre 45 perch lot of cripple "in the main branch of Silver Run near the head thereof" bordering on land of Isaac Starr, Henry Pennington and John Collins "Denominated No. 13 in a release Deed from Isaac Gooding and others to John Hanson, one of the parties hereto." Witnesses were John Crown and William Aull.

John Hanson of St. George's Hundred Farmer and wife Martha sold to Maxwell Bines and David Niven of White Clay Creek Hundred by deed dated 24 Mar. 1801 for $250 an undivided 1/8 part of a 1000 acre tract of land and marsh in St. George's Hundred bounded by Silver Run, the Delaware River, Appoquinimink and Stunkel Creeks, and a canal. John's father William had this 1/8 at his death "leaving issue who are since deceased without issue, whereby the right of the said William Hanson did descend to and become vested in the said John Hanson party hereto being one full equal undivided eighth part of all that tract of upland and marsh called 'Long Island' " (DR W-2:116). It is not at all clear how this 1/8 of Long Island was derived. The entire Reeden Island Tract purchased by the group or company included 2809 acres, of which John Hanson Senior had 3/8 or 1063 acres which was said to include that part called "Long Island". If John (R11) had 1/8, and his father had no other heirs, then his father William (R7) must have had 1/8. William purchased the shares of his brothers (no sisters are mentioned) in his father's estate. Thus William's father John (R4) must have had 1/8, and his sister Mary (Hanson) Jones had sold him all her interest in the Tract, so that their father William (R2) would have had 1/8. There are certain problems in finding a 1/8 interest continuing in William's family as noted earlier, and perhaps this refers only to a shadowy claim based on an old family tradition. Maxwell Bines and David Nivin petitioned the court for the opening of a private road to "a valuable estate, by the name of Long Island, situate in St. George's Hundred" and were granted this right in 1802 (Road Book 198, 215-217).

John Hanson of St. George's Hundred and wife Martha sold to Ezekiel Britton by deed dated 25 Aug. 1801 for £7 per acre a tract of 9 acres 115 perches on Silver Run contiguous to other land of Ezekiel Britton. Witnesses were John Crow and Leonard Vandegrift (DR X-2:112). This tract was purchased by David Van Dyke from Cantwell Jones 10 June 1773 and devised by Jones to his brother-in-law John Hanson by will dated 23 Sept. 1798.

John Hanson Husbandman of St. George's Hundred mortgaged his tract of 181 acres 68 perches by indenture dated 9 June 1802 for £300 to Mary Black of the Village of Newark, widow (DR Y-2:29). As wife Martha did not join in this mortgage it may be assumed that she died between 25 Aug. 1801 the date of this mortgage.

He was listed in the 1800 Census as having males 2 10/16, 1 16/26, 1 over 45 and females 2 under 10, 3 10/16, and 1 26/45.

He died in 1803 as his will dated 4 March was probated 11 March 1803 providing that four negroes were to serve for a stated number of years and then be free, that various lots be sold and the residue be divided among his children. William McConaughey was named executor. Patrick McConaughey and William Hanson were witnesses.

David Nivin and wife Tabitha (daughter of Dr. James McMecken) sold to Maxwell Bines by deed dated 25 January 1801, and Bines mortgaged to Josiah Lender by instrument dated 12 May 1806 a one-half interest in "a certain Tract of Upland and Marsh known by the name of Long Island" in St. Georges Hundred.

John and Martha had children:

i. Hannah m. William McConaughy
ii. Mary m. Patrick McConaughy 23 Dec. 1806 (Mar. Rec. 36-34).
iii. James
iv. Margaret
v. Rachel m. James McVay and died leaving male child McVay who died intestate without issue (DR X-6:180, Y-6:447).

David Van Dyke in his will dated 23 September 1798 mentioned James and Mary as children of his brother-in-law John Hanson (WR O-1:379).

On 6 March 1804 Mary and James Hanson chose William McConaughy as their guardian (so they were 14 or older) and the court appointed him guardian for Margaret and Rachel Hanson (so they were 13 or under) with William Frazer as surety (OCR I-1:262, 360, 361). On 23 August 1804 William McConaughy for his wife Hannah and as guardian for her brother and three sisters applied to the Orphans Court for their share (i.e.) their mother Martha's share) in the estate of their mother's deceased sister Elizabeth. The application cites Elizabeth's father Jacobus' (R9) death seized of land in St. George's Hundred bounded by land of John Hanson, Rev. John Collins, Lewis Vandegrift et al, of 200 acres, leaving eight named children, and states that in 1801 Richard Price bought the shares of all children except Elizabeth who was under age (OCR I-1:329, 338). Those named to divide the property found that it could not be divided and on 20 August 1807 it was given to Richard Price upon his giving security to Patrick McConaughy as administrator of the estate of Elizabeth Hanson deceased, one of the children of Jacobus Hanson deceased. John Stuart was surety for £134 (OCR I-1:338, 454, 455, 539, 540). Evidently William McConaughy died or otherwise left these guardianships as on 5 March 1805 Mary Hanson chose Joshua Carter as guardian and James Hanson chose Patrick McConaughy and the court appointed Patrick as guardian for Margaret and Rachel Hanson, with Alexander McFarlan as surety (OCR I-1:360, 361).

A valuation made for the court of the real estate of Mary, James, Margaret and Rachel (4/5 share—Hannah presumably of age) made 19 August 1805 was $350 per annum. The properties were obviously not from the mother's side mentioned above but represented their father's estate. They were (1) a lot of 10 acres and blacksmith shop, tenement in bad repair and shop in good repair, (2) a two-story log tenement and shed kitchen and garden in bad repair, (3) a three-acre lot at the Trap, with two-story framed storehouse, dwelling house and kitchen, carriage house, granary and stable, all except stable in good repair, (4) Mansion Farm, 150 acres cleared land, with one and a half-story dwelling house, shed and kitchen, etc., and (5) seven-acre meadow on Augustine Creek (OCR I-1:414). There were partition proceedings brought in the Court of Common Pleas by Patrick McConaughey, but the record is not presently available in the Archives Office (DR Y-6:447).

On 6 March 1811 Margaret Hanson chose Leonard Vandegrift as her guardian. Probably the other children were then of age, as no appointments were made for them (OCR I-1:682).

There are a number of items concerning one or more John Hansons listed on the assessment rolls of St. George's Hundred which are difficult to identify, and at least some of which may be applicable above:

John Hanson Junior 1777-1782; John Hanson 1779, 1781-90, 93, 96, 1808. 1798 item refers to 259 acres, ½ of 2 houses and 5 slaves; Hans Hanson's estate 1778; John Hanson Farmer 1792-3; John Hanson's Estate 1798—1 house and lot.

UNALLOCATED

Peter Hanson, Husbandman, purchased from John Wales, Esq. of the Borough of Wilmington, by deed dated 16 March 1830, for $4750, a plantation of 275 acres in St. George's Hundred bounded by the road leading from Middletown to Warwick, and lands of Richard E. Cochran, John Eddowes and the heirs of Thomas F. Bayard, with a frame dwelling house and kitchen and other buildings. Witness was J. A. Bayard. John Wales had acquired the land by sheriff's deed dated 11 October 1823, on judgment by John Patterson against Francis Haughey (DR L-4:382).

Peter married first Christiana Flintham on 20 February 1817 (Mar. Rec. 7:15). After her death he married her sister Susan Flintham on 24 March 1832 (Mar. Rec. 11:137). Christiana and Susan were daughters of Benjamin Flintham, who died in 1831 leaving a will dated 24 August and probated 6 September 1831 providing that his farm of about 247½ acres in Appoquinimink Hundred should be divided one-half to his daughter Susan Hanson and one-half to his son-in-law Peter Hanson for life, remainder to the children of his daughter Christiana.

Peter by his will dated 29 July 1836 and probated 30 October 1838 devised the property in St. George's Hundred on which he lived to his three older sons on condition that they convey to their two sisters, Peter's daughters, all their interest in the Appoquinimink property coming to them by will of their grandfather Benjamin Flintham, which they did. Small bequests were provided for sons Edward and Cyrus at 21. Then followed a series of deeds all dated 10 January 1843 by which the three sons conveyed the Appoquinimink property to their two sisters, Susan conveyed her half interest in the Appoquinimink property to her nephew Joseph H. Hanson of St. Georges Hundred, Joseph Hanson conveyed his interest in the St. Georges property to his two brothers Benjamin F. and William A. Hanson, and the latter two divided the St. Georges property between them. The Appoquinimink property was bounded by lands of heirs of William Wilson, James Ford and Samuel Pennington. The St. Georges property was bounded by lands of Dr. James S. Naudain, heirs of Isaac Gibbs, Levi Clark and others. Witnesses were John Janvier, Peregr Hendrickson, and John M. Smith (DR L-5:59, 533, N-5:110, 112, 116).

William A. Hanson later sold to his brother Benjamin F. Hanson both of St. Georges Hundred 15 acres adjacent to Benjamin's land and land of John McCrane by deed dated 27 December 1850 for $600. Witnesses were Chal Tatman and Sylvester Roe (DR F-6:160).

Children of Peter Hanson and Christiana Flintham were:

i. Benjamin F. married 1. Mary A. C. Jones and 2. Ann E. V. Jones who was living in 1850. Perhaps he emulated his father in marrying sisters Jones (Mar. Rec. 22:201; 12:235).
ii. Joseph H. His will was dated 11 Jan. probated 2 Feb. 1858. Executors were Alfred Nowland & wife Mary B. Witnesses were Horatio Willets and R. T. Cochran. He left land in St. George's Hundred recently purchased and a farm in Appoquinimink Hundred. He had a son Joseph. A Joseph Hanson married Eliza Flintham 12 April 1821, but the relationship is not clear.
iii. William A.
iv. Elizabeth M.
v. Mary Jane
vi. Edward
vii. Cyrus

On 9 July 1839 and 8 September 1840 it was stated in Orphans Court that Peter left six children, but only Joseph H., William A. and Elizabeth M. over 14 and Mary Jane under 14 were named. The deeds recited above show only five children. The property in St. Georges Hundred consisted of a farm of 275 acres with frame dwelling house and many outbuildings, with a yearly rental value of $700, and there was also a farm in Appoquinimink Hundred with a small brick dwelling and outbuildings, and a lot with two small frame tenements, having a yearly rental of $300 (OCR R-1:432, 438, 502, 512).

FAMILY RECORD: ANGLE–EDEN

The following entries were transcribed from the family record pages of The Comprehensive Bible . . . published in Philadelphia by J. B. Lippincott & Company in 1863. The first six births were obviously copied from another source.

The Bible was found in an antique shop in Philadelphia by Barbara (Morley) Erb, who furnished photocopies of the pages. Four births and one marriage, all post World War I, have been omitted in this transcript. On one of the pages a newspaper In Memoriam for Charles H. Angle by the railroad representatives of the various lines at Atlanta, Georgia, has been pasted.

1767, married Jesse Pratt; Aaron married Mary Wilkinson; Stephen, born Oct. 17, 1769, married (first) Anna Carpenter and (second) Polly Carpenter. Stephen Rhodes, Jr., died in 1770. Inventory of the estate was taken by John Boyden. There is a record of his having enlisted in February, 1760, for the French and Indian war. His widow married for her second husband Asa Morse, on Nov. 24, 1775.

(VI) Stephen Rhodes (3), son of Stephen and Mary (Boyden) Rhodes, was born Oct. 17, 1769, and married Widow Anna Daniels Carpenter, who was born March 27, 1763, daughter of Francis Daniels, and widow of Nehemiah Carpenter, of Foxboro, Mass. Their children were as follows: Achsah, born April 14, 1793, died Oct. 30, 1795; Stephen, born March 15, 1795, died Oct. 24, 1874; Susan, born May 10, 1797, married Ira Fairbanks, and died in 1864; Anna, born July 5, 1799, married John Corey; and Mary, born March 20, 1804, married Ira French. Stephen Rhodes married (second) March 20, 1815, Polly Carpenter, and she died April 9, 1839, the mother of the following children: Catherine, born March 12, 1816, married William Payson; Maria, born Nov. 1, 1817, married Stephen Coleman; Martha, born Dec. 4, 1819, married William Hitchcock; Elizabeth C., born May 20, 1824, married a Mr. Greene; and Sarah, born Jan. 9, 1828, died Jan. 3, 1839.

(VII) Stephen Rhodes (4), son of Stephen (3) and Anna Daniels (Carpenter) Rhodes, was born March 15, 1795, and was married Jan. 1, 1817, to Betsey Bird, born July 10, 1795, of Foxboro, Mass. To this union were born the following children: Lavinia, Oct. 17, 1817; Lucretia M., Sept. 2, 1819 (died Nov. 21, 1878); Marcus M., Jan. 22, 1822; Stephen Holbrook, Nov. 7, 1825 (married Elizabeth M. Godfrey); Mary Bird, April 30, 1829; John Corey, Oct. 10, 1831 (married first Sarah B. Perrigo and second Caroline M. Jewett); Almira Elizabeth, Feb. 3, 1835; Ellen Frances, Dec. 30, 1839.

(VIII) MARCUS M. RHODES, son of Stephen (4) and Betsey (Bird) Rhodes, born in Foxboro Jan. 22, 1822, married Nov. 11, 1845, Rowena A. Williams, who was born Nov. 16, 1825, and to this union were born children as follows: Charles Marcus, born Oct. 6, 1846, who married Annie B. Haskins; George Holbrook, born Aug. 11, 1848, who married Louisa L. Bassett; and Albert Clinton, born April 9, 1857, who married Cora E. Dyer.

Marcus Morton Rhodes was educated in the common schools of Franklin, Foxboro and Taunton, and at the high school and Bristol Academy of Taunton. After leaving school he entered the factory of his father, and learned the trade of making tacks and nails. At the age of twenty-one he was taken into partnership, becoming a member of the firm of S. Rhodes & Son, and he continued with this business until 1857. In 1862 he embarked alone in a special branch of tack making. In 1870 he admitted his elder sons to partnership, the firm name becoming M. M. Rhodes & Sons, and they added to the business the making of papier-maché shoe buttons, by a machine of Mr. Rhodes's own invention, the first practical machine of this kind used in the country. This was the basis of his subsequent prosperity. In 1888 the firm became a corporation under the name of the M. M. Rhodes & Sons Company. Mr. Rhodes was a member of the first common council of the city of Taunton in 1865, and was a member of the board of water commissioners under whose direction water was introduced into Taunton. In politics he was first connected with the old Whig party, and since the formation of the Republican party he has been a member of the latter organization.

(IX) GEORGE HOLBROOK RHODES, son of Marcus Morton and Rowena A. (Williams) Rhodes, born Aug. 11, 1848, married Sept. 10, 1874, Louisa L. Bassett, born Oct. 10, 1846, daughter of Charles J. H. and Nancy L. (Gibbs) Bassett. Mrs. Rhodes passed away March 30, 1902. To this union were born children as follows: Helen Holbrook, born Aug. 13, 1877 (married Ralph E. Barker); Nancy Bassett, born Jan. 20, 1880; and Marcus Arnold, born July 17, 1881 (married Ruth L. Bangs).

Mr. Rhodes received his early education in the public schools, and was graduated from the high school in 1866. He then went to work for his father, and became a partner in the firm, and is and has been since 1888 treasurer of the M. M. Rhodes & Sons Company. Mr. Rhodes was a member of the common council from 1877 to 1886, inclusive, and was president of the board for the last four years, and ex-officio member of the trustees of the public library and member of school committee. He is a Mason of the highest standing, having received his thirty-third degree Sept. 21, 1897. He is a member and past master of Charles H. Titus Lodge, A. F. & A. M.; Keystone Chapter, R. A. M., Foxboro; and of St. John's Commandery, K. T., Providence, of which he is past commander. He was also one of the trustees of the Masonic Education and Charity Trust of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, elected in December, 1895, to serve eight years, and reëlected in 1902 for another term of eight years; and he is treasurer of the Taunton Masonic Corporation. He is a director of the Taunton National Bank, and one of the trustees of Morton Hospital. His religious connection is with Broadway Trinitarian Congregational Church, and he is a member of its standing committee. Socially he belongs to Winthrop Club.

(VIII) JOHN COREY RHODES, son of Stephen and Betsey (Bird) Rhodes, was born Oct. 10, 1831. In 1832 he was taken by his parents to Foxboro, and in 1835 to Taunton, Mass., where his education was obtained, in the public schools and also at the Bristol Academy. At the age of seventeen he went into his father's factory to learn the business of manufacturing tacks, and five years later began with small inventions, and went into business with his brother, Marcus M. Rhodes, in Taunton. About the year 1863 he went to East Bridgewater and South Abington to engage in the eyelet business with William H. Dunbar, of Dunbar, Hobart & Whidden, the large tack manufacturers. Mr. Dunbar and Mr. Rhodes began the manufacture of eyelets under the firm name of Dunbar & Rhodes. Upon the death of Mr. Dunbar in 1890 Mr. Rhodes bought out the Dunbar interest in the business, and removed the factory to New Bedford. Here he engaged in manufacturing under the firm style of J. C. Rhodes & Co. In December, 1893, he took his son John B. into partnership and since then most of the management of the business has devolved upon the latter. From 1872 to 1882 Mr. Rhodes made his home in Mattapoisett, and since then he has resided in New Bedford.

Though past the age of fourscore, Mr. Rhodes is an active, well-preserved man. He has been greatly interested in yachts for many years, and is a member of the New Bedford Yacht Club, of which he has been a director, and was also commodore of the fleet in 1881 and 1882. In the years of 1880-81, when he was sailing the schooner yacht "Indolent," he sailed in her to Florida waters in the winter season. Mr. Rhodes is, or has been, a member of the following clubs: Wamsutta and Dartmouth, of New Bedford; and the New York Yacht Club, the Larchmont Yacht Club and the Atlantic Yacht Club—proof of his deep interest in the sport.

In 1864 Mr. Rhodes married Sarah Bird, daughter of James M. and Sarah Perrigo, of East Bridgewater, Mass. To them were born two children, Mabel, who died aged two years, and John B. Mrs. Rhodes passed away in April, 1893, and on Feb. 1, 1894, Mr. Rhodes married (second) Caroline Mitchell, daughter of Charles H. and Harriett Jewett, of Lakeville, Massachusetts.

(IX) JOHN BIRD RHODES, son of John Corey and Sarah B. (Perrigo) Rhodes, was born in South Abington, Mass., March 20, 1869. He attended school in Mattapoisett and at the Friends' Academy in New Bedford, and on Jan. 1, 1888, began working in the eyelet factory at Whitman. In June, 1891, he came to the factory in New Bedford, working for his father, who, in December, 1893, took him into partnership. Since that time Mr. Rhodes has had the active management of the business.

Mr. Rhodes is a member of the Wamsutta Club, Dartmouth Club, Dartmouth Cafe Club, New Bedford Yacht Club, New York Yacht Club, Larchmont Yacht Club, Atlantic Yacht Club, Riverside Yacht Club, Newport Yacht Racing Association, Boston Gentlemen's Driving Club and Metropolitan Driving Club.

BIRD. The Bird family, too, is an early New England one, the Stoughton branch, at least in part, descending from Thomas Bird, who was born in England about 1613, and is of record at Dorchester, New England, as early as 1642, in which year he joined the church there on its reorganization under the distinguished Rev. Richard Mather. Mr. Bird was made a bailiff in 1654. He was a tanner by occupation and lived on what is called Humphrey street. One of his sons, John Bird, born in 1641, married Elizabeth, daughter of Richard Williams, of Taunton, and one of their sons, Samuel Bird, born in 1680, married in 1704 Sarah Clap, and lived in Stoughton. His son, Samuel Bird, married Anna Atherton, daughter of Humphrey Atherton, and their son, Elijah Bird, married Sarah Pratt, daughter of Capt. Josiah and Abigail (Williams) Pratt. Their daughter, Betsey Bird, married (VII) Stephen Rhodes.

TRAFFORD. The old and knightly family of Trafford, seated at Trafford in the county palatine of Lancashire from a period antecedent to the Norman Conquest, has preserved from time immemorial an unbroken male descent. From Randolphus de Trafford, who flourished in the time of King Canute, the Dane, about the year 1030, sprang the great house of Trafford which has since uninterruptedly held a most distinguished place among the first families of Lancashire, England.

Bird

down, transported to Boston, and shipped on board the Thaddeus, commanded by Capt. A. Blanchard, of Medford, for the Sandwich Islands, who also carried out the first American missionaries.[1]

CHARLESTOWN.—Willoughby had a shipyard in Charlestown, on the site of the Fitchburg railroad depot, or in Warren avenue; and was in 1641 building a ship. The town, to encourage the enterprise, gave him liberty "to take timber from the common," and without "being bound to cut the tops of the trees."

In 1677, a dry dock was built in that town. In 1667, the general court offered strong inducements to any one who would make a "Dry Dock in Boston or Charlestown, fit to take in a ship of three hundred tons," and one was, that no others should build one for twenty-one years. The offer was renewed in 1668. The work was not done until 1677, when James Russell and others built one near Harris's wharf, a short distance from the Navy Yard. It was evidently a great enterprise for the time.[2]

THOMAS BIRD, OF DORCHESTER, MASSACHUSETTS, AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS.

[Communicated by WILLIAM B. TRASK, Esq., Boston, Mass.]

THOMAS[1] BIRD was born in England about the year 1613, in the reign of James the First. As to the time of his arrival in this country we are not informed. He joined the church in Dorchester in 1642, after its reorganization under the distinguished Rev. Richard Mather. He was made a bailiff in 1654, and was by occupation a tanner. He lived on what is now called Humphreys street. His tan-yard was on the ground nearly opposite, a little to the north-east, of the present residence of Thomas Groom, Esq., where a few years ago the yard and pits might have been seen. Jonas Humphreys and his son James were also tanners and near neighbors to Mr. Bird, owning and occupying land at the south end of the above named street. Among his cotemporaries in the same respectable and lucrative business, in the town, were John Glover, John Gornhill and others, as also Jeremy Houchin and Henry Bridgham, of Boston, who were formerly of Dorchester.

Thomas Bird died June 8, 1667, aged 54. His will was proved July 17, 1667. (See Reg., vol. xvi. p. 161.) Appended is a fac-simile of his signature to that document. The inventory of his estate, taken by John Capen, Sen. and Jasper Rush, amounted to the large sum in those times, of about one thousand pounds. His widow, Ann, died Aug. 21, 1673. They had:—

4. iv. JAMES, b. about 1647; d. Sept. 1, 1723.
v. SARAH, bap. Aug. 12, 1649; d. April 24, 1669.
vi. JOSEPH, died Sept. 26, 1665.

2. THOMAS[2] (Thomas[1]), b. May 4, 1640; m. Thankful, dau. of Humphrey Atherton, Feb. 2, 1665. He was made freeman, April 18, 1690; died Jan. 30, 1709–10. She was born in 1644; died April 11, 1719. The inventory of his estate, taken by Daniel Preston, James Foster and James Blake, was £570.14.5. Among his effects were a Negro man servant, valued at £45; a Negro maid servant, at £30; housing, orchard, meadow and other lands, £390.

On the 8th of March, 1710–11, there was an agreement between the widow and children of Thomas Bird, late of Dorchester, deceased, intestate. The widow releases all her right unto her children, unto the housing, lands and other estate of her deceased husband, except the right in the dwelling house and other privileges mentioned and to her reserved. In consideration the Children agree to pay their Mother the Annual rent of £10, viz., Joseph $\frac{2}{10}$ and each of the other children in a just proportion. The Mother freely to enjoy, during her life, one third part of all the housing, convenient part of the cellar, and liberty of the Oven as she shall have occasion, and the little Garden and such part of the fruit of any of the Fruit Trees on any part of the Lands as she desires for her own eating, while growing on said Trees, and one third of the moveables, which their Mother may sell or Dispose of as her own Comfort if needed by her, otherwise to come in a just Division at her decease. That Benjamin Bird, one of the sons of the deceased, in Consideration of £470 paid to the rest of the Children, shall Enjoy all the housing, Land and Moveable estate of our said Deceased Father, except the right of common and undivided Lands in the New Grants and the housing and moveables set out to our Mother. Signed by Thankful Bird, Joseph Bird, Benjamin Bird, Jeremiah Fuller, Jonathan Jones, Sarah Jones, John Clark, Isaac Howe, Submit How, Edward White, Patience White, Mary Bird and Mercy Bird.

Thomas and Thankful (Atherton) Bird had:—

5. i. JOSEPH, b. Oct. 1, 1666; d. March 9, 1711–12.
ii. THANKFUL, b. Feb. 6, 1667; m. 1700, Lieut. Jeremiah Fuller, of Newton. She was his third wife; died 1729; she had six children. Mr. Fuller had a fourth wife, who died in 1742. He died Dec. 23, 1743, aged 85. See Jackson's History of Newton, 280, and Savage's Dictionary.
iii. SARAH, b. Oct. 24, 1669; m. Jonathan Jones, April 7, 1709.
iv. ANNE, b. Nov. 8, 1671; m. John Clark, of Newton, April 16, 1697. (For the names of their six children and their births, see Jackson's Hist. of Newton, page 258, where it is erroneously stated that John Clark, Jr. m. Ann Pierce, of Dorchester, instead of Anne Bird. There was no Ann Pierce in Dorchester, that we know of, at that date.)
v. THOMAS, b. Aug. 11, 1673. He was one of the "Canada soldiers," under the command of Capt. John Withington, of Dorchester, in the famed expedition of 1690. Of the seventy-five in that company, forty-six, says the Church records, never returned. Thomas Bird was, doubtless, among the lost. In the list of those who were admitted by the general court of Massachusetts, as settlers or grantees into a new Township in the county of Worcester, Mass., about January, 1737–8, (incorporated in 1765, by the name of Ashburnham), was "Benjamin Bird, ju. of Dorchester, in the right of his Vncle, Thomas Bird." See Register, xvi. 148, 149; Hist. of Dorchester, p. 256.

8. PATIENCE[3] (Thomas,[2] Thomas[1]), b. Nov. 27, 1683; m. Edward White (b. Aug. 4, 1683, son of James and Sarah (Baker) White, and grandson of Edward and Martha). Patience died Dec. 11, 1757. They had:—

i. EDWARD, b. Nov. 25, 1712; d. May 6, 1755.
ii. PATIENCE, b. Dec. 22, 1714; m. Samuel Blake, June 5, 1740. He was b. Sept. 6, 1715, son of James and Wait (Simpson) Blake, who was the son of James and Ruth (Batchelder) Blake, the son of James and Elizabeth (Clap) Blake, the son of William and Agnes.

Samuel and Patience (White) Blake had a daughter Sarah, b. Sept. 21, 1754, who m. June 9, 1772, John[5] Pierce (b. Sept. 22, 1742), son of John,[4] son of John,[3] son of Thomas,[2] who was the son of Robert[1] and Ann (Greenway) Pierce.

John[5] and Sarah (Blake) Pierce had ten children, one of whom, Patience,[6] b. Dec. 26, 1787 (great-granddaughter of Patience (Bird) White), m. Aug. 4, 1811, William Trask. They were the parents of William Blake Trask, the compiler of this genealogy, who was born Nov. 25, 1812, one hundred years after the birth of (i.) Edward White.

iii. ABIJAH, b. Jan. 23, 1716–17, "which was several months after his father's Decese."

Sarah, dau. of Edward White, b. March 1, 1708; d. March 3, 1708. Sarah, dau. of Edward White, b. April 3, 1711. Whether these were the daughters of Edward, by a former wife, or the children of Patience, the record does not inform us.

9. BENJAMIN[3] (Thomas,[2] Thomas[1]), b. April 13, 1686. The intention of marriage is entered on Boston records thus:—"Benjamin Bird, of Boston, to Johannah Harrise, of Ipswich, Jan. 30, 1710." He was for a while wharfinger in Boston. He was an important man in the town of Dorchester; was Constable in 1725, chosen to the same office in 1727, and paid his fine for non-acceptance, according to the law of the times; was a Selectman and Assessor, 1728–'32. Deputy to the General Court and Representative, 1729–'33 and '37. He bought the 1000 acres of the Dorchester school land in Lunenburg, March 4, 1733–4, for the sum of £400. For some account of the troubles that were experienced by the Church and Society in Dorchester during the Whitefield excitement in the years 1746 and '47, see Blake's Annals, 63–65, and History of Dorchester, 311–13. Mr. Bird and his son Samuel were in strong opposition to the church and its pastor, the Rev. Jonathan Bowman, but the Council of Churches sustained the latter.

Benjamin and Johannah (Harris) Bird had fifteen children; the first five were born in Boston, the other ten in Dorchester.

Samuel Bird was in the same class, in Harvard College, with Mr. Edward Bass, from Dorchester, afterwards the first Bishop of Massachusetts, who graduated in 1744. Mr. Bird did not, however, obtain his degree, "in consequence of some rash censures upon several of the Governors of the College, and the venerable clergyman of Cambridge, which were dictated by religious enthusiasm." On the 31st of August, 1747, he received a call from the church in Dunstable, Mass., afterwards in the territory of New-Hampshire, to settle with them in the ministry as successor to the Rev. Josiah Swan, a graduate of Harvard, in the class of 1733. The ordination soon after took place. "By the terms of his contract he was to have 100 ounces of coined silver, Troy weight, sterling alloy, or the full value thereof in bills of credit, or about $100, yearly, for his salary, provided 'that he preach a lecture once in three months at least in this town,' and 'visit and catechise the people.' At this choice there was much dissatisfaction, and the town was nearly equally divided." He was one of the "New Lights," since known as Methodists, and his ordination in Dunstable was considered a great triumph by his friends who had just erected a new meeting-house there. A quarrel ensued, and a division in the church took place. A strong party favored the new minister, but many were opposed to him on account of his peculiar views, and another church was immediately organized. The leaders of the two parties, Lovewell and Blanchard, were strong men, and had both been much in public life. "The question soon assumed a party shape, and laid the foundation of political differences, which after the lapse of a century"—says Mr. Fox, in his History of Dunstable, written in 1846—"are not entirely forgotten or obliterated." See the History above mentioned for additional particulars, pp. 153–155. Intelligence was received at New-Haven of the dismission of Mr. Bird from Dunstable, and supposing that he would be a suitable man to settle with them, application was at once made to him by members of the First Church. Their request was accepted. After preaching there about three months, an unanimous invitation both from the church and congregation was received, desiring his settlement with them. He was installed October 16, 1751. We have not room even for an abstract of this curious and interesting chapter in the ecclesiastical history of the New-Haven church, but would refer to Trumbull's History of Connecticut, vol. ii. chap. xiv.; Bacon's Historical Discourses, Discourse xi." "Mr. Bird was a popular man," says Rev. Dr. Trumbull, "made a manly appearance, spoke well, had a very great talent, especially in speaking at the grave, on funeral occasions. The society had peace and flourished under his administration." He became, subsequently, a Chaplain in the Army, in the French war of 1755. We have no information in regard to the time and place of his death, nor any further account of his family.

WILL OF JOHN BORODEL

From New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Boston 1906
"Genealogical Gleanings in England."

Borrowdale or Borodel,

"John Borrowdale of London, gentleman, 2 September 1667, proved 18 November 1667. By an indenture of Lease bearing date 12 June 1665 the Right Hon. Philip Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery did devise and grant unto Richard Arnold of London, merchant, all his mines, lead ore and copper ore in Glamorgan, for term of one and twenty years etc. which lease the said Richard hath assigned and set over to me by writing dated 19 July 1665. I give said lease to my two sons John and Benjamin, the profits to be equally paid betwixt them at their respective ages of one and twenty years, my wife Anne my executrix to manage the same, in the meantime, according to her discretion. If these two die etc., then I give the same to my two sons Broughton and Francis. If they die then to my two daughters Anne and Rebecca and to the child now in the womb of my wife. The rest to be divided into three equal parts, one third whereof I give to my dear wife Anne, another third I give to my children John, Benjamin, Broughton, Francis, Anne, Rebecca, and the child now in the womb of my wife, at the age of one and twenty etc., which my son John will attain 5 January 1675, Benjamin 3 June 1680, Broughton 28 May 1684, Francis 29 April 1686, daughter Anne 17 March 1681, Rebecca 4 Jly 1683.

Out of the other third of my estate I give unto my loving sisters Anne Denison, Alice Hincks and Margaret Mitchell three pounds apiece as tokens of my love, to my wife's father (and my dear friend) to my sister to my brother and sister Thatcher and to Mr. Joseph Whestone twenty shillings apiece to buy them rings. Thirty pounds to such godly and religious persons who are necessities. To John Mosyer and William Moses and to my brother Mr. Andrew Broughton forty shillings apiece. The rest to my sons and the unborn child . . .

The rest of the will does not mention the family unless the Francis Allen Esq. deceased was his father-in-law.

"31 March 1643. John Borrodale, son of John Borrodale, of Cumberland Yeoman apprenticed to Francis Allen, Citizen & Goldsmith of London for 8 years."

From A. T. Butler. College of Arms, 18 October 1935.

"As to the house in Cork, Ireland, which Ann Borodale inherited, it may have been acquired by her father, as was a large amount of Irish real estate which was confiscated by Cromwell and handed over to his soldiers and also acquired by Englishmen in England to whom a vast number of parcels of real estate were sold at nominal prices by Cromwell's government. These purchasers were called Irish Adventurers and a list of many of them is extant in State Papers here."

From C. A. Hoppin, 75 Chandery Lane, London, Apr. 11, 1934.

Anne Denison, named in the will of John Borodale, can be none other than the second wife of Capt. George Denison of Stonington, who came, a lad in his teens, in the Lion 1631, a fellow passenger with the Apostle Eliot. He grew to manhood at Roxbury, where his father was deacon. He there married Bridget Thompson, who died early, leaving two daughters. Denison returned to England, participated in the unhappy wars, then prevalent, and was wounded at Naseby, where he served under Cromwell. In his wounded condition, he was attended by a daughter of the gentleman to whose house he had been carried. On recovery he married the lady, who was Ann, daughter of John Borodell, as the name has been usually spelled here; again came to Roxbury and dwelt there till 1651, when, in the interest of Massachusetts, then claiming the eastern section of Connecticut, he removed first to the Pequot river and finally in 1654 to Stonington, then called Southertown (vide REGISTER, Oct. 1893, p. 459), was appointed "clerk of the writts" and commissioner. After the absorption of the whole territory by the colony of Connecticut, Denison remained at Stonington, where he led a life of the most active and distinguished character, in both civil and military affairs. As a soldier, r

His wife, Ann Borodell, long outlived him, dying in 1712 at the age of 97. Three sons and three daughters married into the leading families of southeastern Connecticut, and the farm, originally settled by Capt. George, is in the occupation, as it has ever since been, of his namesakes; while the name and fame of Ann Borodell are perpetuated in hundreds of her fair descendants in the Gallup, Stanton, Palmer, Chesebro, Miner, Williams, Babcock, Brown and Wheeler families. It is traditional in those families that Ann's brother, John, came to America, but the language of the will, above quoted, renders the tradition unlikely. Possibly his son John came.

Margaret Borodell, as is well known, was the third wife of Rev. Thomas Shepard of Cambridge; and on his disease became the wife of his successor, Rev. Jonathan Mitchell.—GEO. A. GORDON.]

Also, "Joan Capen, ye daughter of Oliuer Purchis, dyed ye 26 of March, 1653, ye night before, aged 75 yeers"; she was born about the year 1578.

A fragment of the original grave-stone of Barnard and Joan Capen was found a few years ago, in the old cemetery at Dorchester. It is in possession of the New-England Historic Genealogical Society, a copy of which is here appended, as, also, a copy from the renewed stone, as it now stands, in that ancient burial-ground. This is, probably, "the oldest Inscription to be found on any grave stone in New England," so far as the date of death of Barnard Capen is concerned.—REGISTER, iv., 165.

He is last mentioned in the allotment of lands at "the necke," now South Boston, March 18, 1637, with the Cowes Pasture and other land, when portions were assigned him, as also to his son John, who, according to the record, was "born ye 26 of January, in ye yeer of or Lord, 1612," and died in Dorchester, the 4th of April, 1692, aged 80 years, having had nine children, by his two wives, whose maiden names were Redegon Clap, and Mary Bass. INTRODUCTION

THE BOOK

The cases printed in this book were reported by Sir John Randolph and Edward Barradall, and were all decided by the General Court of the Colony of Virginia between 1728 and 1743; this Court, after the General Assembly ceased to exercise judicial functions, being the highest court in the Colony.

Although all the cases reported were decided between 1728 and 1743, there are prefixed to those reported by Barradall, some opinions of the Attorney Generals of the Colony and of other persons, which are of a much earlier date, and one opinion of Barradall himself, dated as late as March 29, 1741. With these opinions, which preface the decisions reported by Barradall, is also an opinion by Sir John Randolph.

The cases reported by Edward Barradall are of dates between April, 1733, and October, 1741. Those reported by Sir John Randolph are between the dates of October, 1728, and October, 1732.

Formerly, there was also a manuscript report of cases by William Hopkins, between the dates of October, 1731, and April, 1733, but, as will be seen later, all of this original manuscript except a fragment,[1] four pages of one case, has disappeared, although one case — that of Custis vs. Fitzhugh, of less than four printed lines — has been preserved in the reports of Jefferson.

[1]This fragment is said but is not known to be in Mr. Hopkins' handwriting. In the Barradall-Randolph manuscripts, owned by the Library of Congress, there are also "abridgments," a few lines each of seventeen cases, said to have been taken from a notebook of William Hopkins. They were not regarded as of sufficient interest to be included in this publication.

In the tenth chapter of this introduction some further reference will be made to these reported cases and brief sketches — although I believe all that is known of them — given of the reporters themselves. Of these it is only necessary to say here, as fixing the period of colonial life with which they are associated, that Sir John Randolph was born in 1693 and died March 9, 1737, in his forty-fourth year; and that Edward Barradall was born in 1704 and died on the 19th day of June, 1743,[1] aged thirty-nine years.

Barradall's work as a reporter was done between his twenty-ninth and thirty-ninth years, and that of Randolph between the thirty-fifth and forty-fourth years of his age.

All of the cases of Barradall here printed are taken from a manuscript once owned by Mr. Conway Robinson, and now the property of and preserved in the State Law Library at Richmond, Virginia. All of the cases here printed, as reported by Randolph, are copied from a manuscript in the possession and ownership of the Virginia Historical Society. The copies for the printer were under the direction and supervision of Mr. W. W. Scott, Librarian of the Virginia State Law Library, and their accuracy and completeness, except in a few instances of illegible obscurity, and the obliteration of the ink marks by the time-worn condition of the paper, are certified to by him.[2]

The manuscript from which the Barradall cases were copied is in several handwritings, but none of it is in that of Barradall. This copy was presented to the State Law Library by Mr. Conway Robinson, the eminent lawyer and author. At the time of its met in the Secretary's office to direct the Clerk in drawing the Decree according to the Opinion above ment'd. But the Lawyers for the Deft telling the Clerk the moiety of the 1100 acres was to be divided by Parmels will between his children, and that the Plts were entitled to the other moiety under Arthur Proner, and that the Deft R. B. to one half of the 1100 acres and the Plts the other half. So the decree was drawn, and being for my clients advantage I did not gainsay it."

As before observed, the prominence of the family of Sir John Randolph during his life and ever since, the many official positions held by them, their wealth, and their large and distinguished family connections, made it natural that their family history, and especially what related to so important a member of it as Sir John, should have been preserved. It was not hard, therefore, to find material from which to produce this sketch of him.

But it was very different with Edward Barradall. He was, it is true, "armiger,"[1] and therefore of the same social set with the Randolphs, and that counted for much in those days. But his family connection was small, and as he died without children and neither of his two brothers nor his two sisters appear to have married, the family name perished with him. It was, indeed, quite difficult to ascertain his parentage. The mention by Bishop Meade of Edward Barra*dale* (sic) and Edward Barra*dale*, Jr.,[2] among the vestrymen of Bruton Parish between 1674 and 1769, and the further mention in "Bruton Church" of a Mrs. Barradall as having held five slaves, baptized in 1754, seemed to make it probable that there were two Edward Barradalls, and that among these above mentioned were the father and mother of the reporter. It is still considered most probable that this Mrs. Barradall, still living in 1754, was his mother. As his wife died a few months after his death, and they had no children, and neither of his brothers appear to have married, this Mrs. Barradall might well have been his mother, although in 1754 she would have been about eighty years of age. But it is very evident that his father was not named Edward, and the mention of two of the name as vestrymen by Bishop Meade is most probably a mistake. The reason for this conclusion is found in the discovery, by Mr. W. G. Stanard,[1] in the calendar of "Faculty Office Marriage Licenses," issued by the English Record Society, of an entry of the marriage license of Henry Barradall and Catherine Blumfield, dated June 6, 1696. As Edward Barradall was born in 1704, and had two brothers whose names were Henry and Blumfield, the inference is very strong that the Henry and Catherine who were married June 6, 1696, were his father and mother.[2]

In a corner of the churchyard of Bruton Church at Williamsburg, in a conspicuous place, is a very large and handsome tombstone, which Bishop Meade[3] says was erected by Elizabeth and Frances, two sisters of Edward Barradall and of Henry and Blumfield Barradall, who are buried near by, and whose names, he says, are also cut upon the stone. I give the inscription on the tomb, with such translation as can be most intelligently made of it:

[1]The accomplished secretary of the Virginia Historical Society.

[2]Whether they ever came to America, is not known, but the presence in this country of the three sons and the two daughters make it most probable.

A free, but I believe an accurate, translation of this epitaph is as follows: —

Here lies Edward Barradall, Gentleman (or, strictly translated, entitled to armorial bearings) and who being well versed in the study of the law, and of excellent attainments, deservedly won the places of Attorney General and of Judge of the Vice Admiralty Court, where he served faithfully.

At one time, on behalf of the President of William

[1] "From a rough drawing in the possession of the editor, the arms of Barradall (tincture not given) a bend, three pheons, an annulet for difference, are impaled with Fitzhugh. Az: three chevrons braced in bars of escutcheon, or a chief of the last. William Fitzhugh, lawyer, planter, merchant and shipper, the ancestor of the well-known family of the name, was born in Bedford, England, January 9, 1651, settled in that portion of Stafford, now comprising Prince George County: died at his seat, Bedford, Virginia, in October, 1701."

[2] Hic Situs Est. For this epitaph see Virginia Historical Collections. Vol. XI, 75. Bruton Church, 102.

[3] After this there is a space that seems once to have contained several more lines, which have been wholly obliterated by the wearing away of the stone from the action of the elements. They probably contained the date of Blumfield Barradall's death, and perhaps the names of the sister who erected the tomb, as mentioned by Bishop Meade. Old Churches, etc. Vol. II, 199.

and Mary College, he was a member of the General Assembly.

He had for his wife, his partner in life and in death, Sarah, youngest daughter of the Hon. Wm. Fitzhugh, Gentleman, a member of the Council from Virginia of her Majesty Queen Anne. They died, he on the 19th day of June, 1743, aged 39, and she on the 7th day of October, 1743, aged 30.

Near by lie the bodies of Henry Barradall, the brother of the above named Edward Barradall, who died on the 14th day of September, 1739, aged twenty-seven years, and of Blumfield Barradall, also his brother. . . . .

Of the family name, Bishop Meade says it was an ancient and most respectable one. " It is another name for one learned in the law — a name which for a long time was a terror to the young applicant for a license to practise law, and before which even a Pendleton trembled at his examination."[1]

Hayden's "Virginia Genealogies"[2] contains the following:

" The list of families in the colony who, in vested right, used coat armor, as attested in examples of such use on tombstones, preserved bookplates, and impressions of seals, is more than one hundred and fifty. The virtue of such investment by royal favor may appear somewhat in the fact that the Virginia rebels, Claiborne, Bacon, Washington and Lee, were all armigers, and among others were the Amblers, . . . Barradalls, . . . and so on throughout the alphabet in swelling numbers and comprehensive example of ability and worth."

Where Edward Barradall was born is not known, and indeed, although it is highly probable that his parents came to Virginia to live, nothing could be found to prove it.

The inscription on the tombstone shows that his brother Henry was born in 1710, and therefore Edward Barradall was six years his senior, but the ages of the other brother and of the two sisters is not known. That the sisters survived their three brothers is proved by the fact that they erected the tombstone, but beyond this nothing at all is known of them.

Edward Barradall was a vestryman of Bruton Church and occupied pew No. 10, the fourth from the entrance on the left-hand side of the main aisle of the church. His legal education, at least, was had in England, at the Inner Temple. As a lawyer his standing was high, and at an early age he acquired a large practice.

The Virginia Gazette of November 18, 1737,[1] announces the death that morning between five and six o'clock, of John Clayton, Esq., " His Majesty's Attorney General and Judge of the Court of Vice Admiralty," and closes with the announcement that " His Honour the Governor has been pleased to appoint Edward Barradall, Esq., to act as Attorney General until His Majesty's Pleasure shall be known." This office he held until his death, and he also succeeded Mr. Clayton to the offices of judge of the Vice Admiralty Court, and as representative in the General Assembly for William and Mary College. He was a member of the General Assembly at the sessions of November 1, 1738, May, 1740, August, 1740, and May, 1742.[2]

On January 5, 1735–36, Barradall married Sarah, daughter of Hon. William Fitzhugh, of " Eagles Nest," Stafford, now King George County, Virginia. She was the granddaughter of Col. William Fitzhugh, one of the best known lawyers of the colony. She did not long survive her husband, he dying in June and she in October, 1743.

Edward Barradall is spoken of as the earliest Virginia reporter, but in fact both Hopkins and Randolph wrote their manuscript reports in advance of Barradall. His, however, are much the more numerous, Randolph's consisting of forty cases, while Barradall wrote out ninety-seven cases.

Barradall's style in the argument of his cases is more labored and less interesting than that of Randolph. There is greater display of learning, and more evidence of preparation and research, but it can readily be seen that Randolph was the superior advocate. He must have been much the readier debater, and his handsome and attractive personality gave him decided advantages, both before the regular juries and before the County and General Courts, both of which courts, indeed, were but more select and superior juries.

The cases reported by Barradall are of much the same character as those reported by Randolph, and any further review of them would be but a repetition of what has been already said.

These later reported cases show how often Randolph and Barradall were opposed to each other, in the later years of Randolph's life, but they are rather more liberal in noting the views of Randolph than the latter seems to have been of the positions taken in the arguments by his opponents.

There is nothing to indicate that the cases these reporters have preserved in their manuscripts were intended by them for publication, and if they, or either of them, had any such decided purpose, it probably was not the primary motive that influenced them.
